My expectations

- Being helpful during my « free » time
- Learn a new experience
- See another side of South Africa
- Meet new people
- Practise my English

What I did (during my short time ☹️)

- Read stuff about Africa Unite
- Wrote a letter about the school clubs
- Helped for the Flash-mob (find people, announcement, media, organisation)
- Took part in HR Workshop in Hanover Parc
- Attended the Nyda information meeting in Hanover Parc
- Attended and helped for the Round Table Discussion
- Organized a cooking lesson with the kids in Gugulethu
- Translated texts in French

FLASH MOB

Youth in action on Illicit financial flows from mines!

11 December

Venues :
Grand Parade 11am
Church square 13:30

"WHAT COULD SOUTH AFRICA DO WITH 200 BILLION RANDS A YEAR?"

You have a voice, let it be heard!
WHAT WOULD YOU DO WITH THESE 200 BILLIONS RANDS?
Please join this movement of young people from different backgrounds!
Stand up for South Africa future!

What I have learnt

- How to help people giving them opportunities
- Work in a team with people from different countries and with different languages
- Share the Work
- Be patient with people (and not only with the kids 😊)
- Have responsibilities from the beginning

Thank you !

For allowing me to be a member of the team for a short period, I have learnt a lot from my experience with Africa Unite and I have met amazing people!
